Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday 2019
Pastoral Letter from the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference

We share a common human nature regardless of our ethnic background. We share fundamental needs. This includes the desire to belong, to be happy, to find fulfilment, to be safe, to be appreciated.

Suicide is often the last straw in a build up of unhappiness and pain. There is often a desire for the pain to go and often not focusing on the permanent consequences of taking one's life.

Our Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples have suffered dispossession, displacement, violence of various types and much more. So often others have determined for them what they considered to be the best for them. The challenges facing communities are multifold.

The whole of Australian society is going through massive change. The present rate of change is possibly unprecedented in human history ever. It is effecting all of us in many ways. Many think that you cannot be sure of anything anymore. This has many implications in our search for meaning in life and values. This massive rate of change is also of course effecting our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander brothers and sisters. When this is combined with the practical challenges that they face, the effect can be very far reaching.

As spiritual beings we need spiritual nourishment. When we are not nourished spiritually we can become spiritually sick. Australian society as a whole is challenged of how to nourish ourselves spiritually. Many Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people recognise that this challenge also applies to them, all be it often in somewhat different ways.

As Catholics we know that our hearts are restless until they rest in God. Our Christian faith gives us energy and good reasons for living. There is such a vast history of deep spirituality in our First Nations People in Australia. Pope John Paul II in his famous message which he gave in the Australian heartland when he addressed the Aboriginal peoples, stated that the Catholic Church will be lacking in its full expression if it does not embrace the spirituality of our Aboriginal people.

The embracing of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander spirituality within the wider Catholic spirituality is deeply enriching. We need to walk alongside our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people as they reach for ways of deepening their spiritual life. All can benefit with such walking together.

Our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people have a deep faith. We can all learn from them. Like all of us they are often challenged as to how to pass on their traditions to the younger generations. Many are deeply concerned about the challenges which their young people face.

The tragedy of the large number of suicides among our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people, especially the young, calls us to action! This is a sad and unacceptable reality.

There are many groups working with our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. These include various layers of government, community and Church organisations, and others. We need to avoid the trap of trying to 'resolve' issues for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people! We must safeguard the principle of self-determination. We can walk alongside in loving support but avoid any temptation to come in with quick solutions imposed from outside.

A few basic principles can be helpful so as to move forward in the improvement of support to our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, including the support so as to eradicate suicide.

1. All the various organisations supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people need to work together so as to maximize positive results. All need consistent reviews about effectivity.
2. The principle of self-determination must be truly respected.
3. The common good must be at the heart of all endeavours, i.e. the good of the individual, the good of a group and the good of all groups.
4. All must be motivated by respect and without self-interest.
5. Prevention as well as 'cure' are both necessary.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday Pastoral Letter continued....

Young people often feel alienated and young people in cross cultures can often feel more alienated. Respect must be present at all levels, including respect for young people by those who are older. Respect is always 'two way'.

For Christians, Jesus came to bring life to the fullest. He is calling us to work together with love and respect, and to never give up trying to find the best way forward away from this tragic and unnecessary ending of life.

While there has been many disproportionate numbers of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people taking their lives, no society is immune from this sad reality. We all need to remember that Jesus who laughs and cries with us is 'The Way, the Truth and THE LIFE'.

The theme for the 2019 Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday is "Peace to this house and all who dwell within" and is drawn from this Sunday's Gospel from Luke 10:1-12. Queenie McKenzie's artwork right is the theme image, and has been recreated for both of our churches.

In our busy lives, we are often bombarded with competing priorities, distractions, worries and concerns about ourselves and others, which can cause us to forget to take the time to stop, look around, reflect and look for our peace in our lives. The strong connection to culture and land helps us see the beauty in our world and by sharing this appreciation we are helping share God's love.

The message that NATSICC would like to give you, is to reflect and make time to look for your inner peace in your busy life, and celebrate together with your families, friends and the wider community God's message of peace and love for all.

Acknowledgment Plaques: have been installed at the main entrances of both churches and at the parish office. The erection of a plaque in a Parish, is a symbol of welcome for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples and an Acknowledgment that there is an understanding of Australia's past. This practice of inclusion forms an important part of rebuilding the relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples and non Indigenous Australians. The NATSICC plaque is endorsed by the Australian Catholic Bishops for use in Schools, Parishes and Organisations. The plaque features artwork designed by the Murri Ministry team in Brisbane, and depicts Reconciliation and togetherness in Christ.

Peter's Pence Collection: will be taken up as a retiring collection across the Archdiocese at all Masses this weekend. Peter's Pence gives Catholics in Australia an opportunity to join in communion with the Catholic faithful throughout the world in support of the charitable works of the Holy See. The Collection allows the Holy Father to respond to the most needy throughout the world, to offer timely, effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please support this collection.

St Ignatius Parish's Annual Women's Night of Spirituality: is being held on Tuesday 30th July from 7.30pm to 9.15pm at Stuartholme School Chapel, Birdwood Terrace, Toowing. PLENARY COUNCIL 2020 National Theme for Discernment #3

How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Prayerful and Eucharistic?

This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who shared how deeply they treasured the Eucharist and the sacramental and liturgical life of the Church.

WE NEED YOUR HELP: there are a number of ministries that need a boost in numbers, a helping hand, and some new fresh faces to help out. Please consider if you are being called to help in any of the following important ministries.

- Bethesda Care Communion Run: visiting residents at Bethesda Care Corinda to take Communion. This currently occurs weekly but team members would only be rostered once a month.
- Baptism Preparation: is held on the first Sunday of the month at the Parish Centre at Graceville, at 10.30am for one hour. Teams of Mums and Dads guide and inspire other Mums and Dads who are bringing their children to celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism. Rostered about 3 times per year.
- Friends and Neighbours Mass and Morning Tea: held six times a year, at 10am on a Wednesday at St Joseph's Church. This special Mass includes the Anointing of the Sick and morning tea. We require someone who can organise and coordinate the morning tea.
- Children's Liturgy: each weekend of the School term, alternating between the 8am Mass at Corinda and 9.30am Mass at Graceville. Helpers are needed particularly at Graceville to help lead sessions.
- Morning Tea at Christ the King: is held each fortnight of the school term at Graceville. Some one is needed to help organise and coordinate the morning tea.
- If you wish to be involved in these or any other of the many ministries of the parish, please contact the team at the parish office.
