The Pastor's Pen....

This weekend at the 8.00am Mass Taylor Moore celebrates her First Holy Communion with her family and our Parish community. Congratulations Taylor! The following weekend (19th/20th June) all Masses will involve the simple but important and meaningful First Communion for the remaining group of 49 children from our Parish for 2021.

You are encouraged to be present at these Masses as you ordinarily would, to show your welcome and support for these children and families. Please do make a point of booking in online or by phoning the Parish Office. This will greatly help us with seating and will make marshalling at the door much quicker. Thank you!

Three Deacons of our Archdiocese will be Ordained Priests at St. Stephen's Cathedral by Archbishop Mark Coleridge at 7.00pm on Tuesday, 29th June. They are Francis Fernandes, Jack Ho and William Iuliano. Please hold these men in your prayers over these weeks. Deacon Frances Fernandes, presently serving in the Gatton Laidley Parish, has his father, Neville, as a recent member of our Parish of Corinda Graceville. I will attempt to attend this Ordination ceremony (numbers permitting) and communicate our support to Francis on behalf of all in our Parish.

Everything begins small; ourselves, important projects, buildings, friendships and life long relationships. They start with a seed, just a couple of cells, a simple idea, a few bricks and some mortar, a glance across a room, a felt longing, attraction and desire. This is how great fields of crops start out, how huge trees begin to grow tall, how marriages and committed relationships commence, how a business gets kicked off. The longing of the three Deacons (above) to become Priests of service had their vocations commence in a similar manner, as a small stirring in their hearts and minds many years ago.

With planning, effort, perseverance, study, hard work and the investment of self all of these little seeds, whatever they may be, are grown into something worthwhile and useful to many. Jesus says that this is the same way it is with the Kingdom of God. A crop sown in a field grows night and day until it is ready for the harvesting and nourishing of many. A tree starts as a tiny seed that, over a long time, becomes a big tree, a home and shelter for the birds and shade for us during the heart of the day.

So it is with what God wants and desires for us and for our world. It all starts with hearts that are focused on the Lord and that are committed to love, justice, service and unselfishness for the betterment of all and not just oneself. Our humble prayers and small acts of generosity, love and sacrifice do make a difference in the lives of others.

We should never let ourselves forget this when we see the many problems in our world and the Church. If we listen to the promptings of the Holy Spirit and do what we can then we are working with God, not against Him, and we are helping God's Kingdom of justice and love and peace to come. We are fulfilling our Christian calling, and for this we can, as the Psalm response invites us, give our thanks and praise to the Lord.

Fr. Mark Percival, MA, PP.

YEAR OF SAINT JOSEPH

*Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.*

Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.

*Obtain for us grace, mercy, and courage, and defend us from every evil.
Amen.*

JULIA CUMMING COMMUNITY

CHILD CARE CENTRE
GRACEVILLE

Tucked away in the heart of Graceville, Julia Cumming's small class sizes and extensive outdoor play areas provide children with a unique learning environment that encourages creativity and exploration and rewards curiosity.

We have capacity for just 44 children, from six weeks to kindergarten age across our three rooms. In our open play spaces, where children engage in mixed aged play, our educators get to know every child. As your child transitions through our service these established relationships will help them feel supported and at ease and allow our educators to program to their needs and interests.

At Julia Cumming we offer a Queensland Government approved Kindergarten Program for children in the year before prep. We are conveniently located opposite Christ the King Primary School and around the corner from the Graceville State School and the Graceville train station.

We supply morning tea, afternoon tea, wipes, sunscreen and cot linen. All you need to bring is nappies, a packed lunch, a hat and a spare change of clothes. We are supportive of special dietary requirements and encourage families to discuss their child's needs with us. Long Day Care and the Kindergarten operate from 7am to 6pm Monday to Friday.

Contact us on 3379 3069 or via email at gracevilleldc@catholicearlyedcare.qld.edu.au or visit www.catholicearlyedcare.qld.edu.au/graceville

Our aim is to help your child blossom and grow - individually, creatively, socially, confidently, spiritually and respectfully. Spaces are available in our kindergarten now. Contact us for more information.

NEW CAMPAIGN TELLS QUEENSLANDERS THEY DON'T HAVE TO CHOOSE BETWEEN PAIN AND DEATH

Catholic Health Australia, the peak body representing Catholic not-for-profit hospitals and aged care facilities, launched a campaign last Monday fighting for access to quality palliative care for all Queenslanders before voluntary assisted dying is made legal in the state. The campaign, Another Option, will give Queenslanders the opportunity to tell their elected representatives everyone should get access to decent, modern palliative care before they are given access to assisted suicide.

Catholic Health Australia's Mission & Strategy Director, Rebecca Burdick Davies, said it was vital for Queenslanders to know that the choice did not have to be between pain and death. "Palliative care has come on in leaps and bounds over the past decade," Ms Burdick Davies said. "Instead of forcing vulnerable people to choose between pain and death, our politicians could provide funding for modern palliative care. Most Queenslanders can't access proper palliative care, but it should be available to everyone before we offer the option of suicide. We're campaigning for better funding for palliative care and asking all Queenslanders to tell the state government there's a better option than voluntary assisted dying."

"Right now proper palliative care is not available to the majority of Queenslanders. That means most Queenslanders with a terminal illness are suffering unnecessarily - both physically and emotionally. In rural and regional Queensland palliative care services are virtually non-existent. The Australian Medical Association estimates to make proper palliative care service available to all Queenslanders would cost $400 million a year. The Queensland Government currently spends around a quarter of that."

"Before we legislate for assisted suicide, we should back the compassionate alternative. People who are very sick should have relief from their pain so their loved ones can share precious time with them. Queenslanders should be offered the option to live with relative comfort before they are offered the option of suicide."

Ms Burdick Davies said the challenge of COVID-19 has shown how compassionate Queenslanders are, and how the care about protecting the most vulnerable people in our communities, whether they're sick, elderly, or terminally ill. The new campaign can be found at anotheroption.com.au
