It's our belief, our faith in Jesus Christ and in His saving love and power, that makes us Christian. It's His Holy Spirit living and moving in us each day that over time transforms us into images of Him, making us His sisters and brothers, the children of God. Our Lord's entire life was given over to doing God's will. His way of loving, self-giving service is revealed to us in the years of His public mission and ministry. It's writ large for us in the way that He offered over His life on the last day He was with us on Earth, an offering of Himself whole and entire to God and for us, confirmed and sealed as the one true way into life by His resurrection from the dead.

Holy Week, begun today, is our celebration of this gift, of this way, of His offering and life. It's the most important time of the entire year for us, bar none. This year, guided by St. Luke's Gospel, we enter into this week of commemoration, our week of remembering, of joining our story to that of the Lord as He has joined His life and story to ours forever.

We commence with palms and joy remembering how the people happily greeted Jesus when He came into Jerusalem, humble and riding on a donkey, a beast of burden. Then, very quickly, our focus changes as we hear of the last day of His life, from that Thursday night until the Friday afternoon, from His last supper until He was buried in the earth of this world and securely sealed away from the light. This is the solemn reading and listening to His Passion from Luke's Gospel. It's like an overview for us of what is coming, a reading and hearing of the story and events that will be celebrated by us at the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Thursday evening, the Commemoration of the Lord's Passion on Friday afternoon, and the stillness and waiting of the silent Holy Saturday.

Unlike the first disciples we already know about the Sunday Resurrection Day which begins with the powerful new-life liturgy in the Easter Vigil, but (and this is important) we have to journey to this joy and hope by walking every step of the way as the Lord did and with Him now. We have to do this over and over again so that we don't forget what He did, what it all means for us, so that we can realise once more that our lives and experiences are now captured by Him, caught up in His destiny and victory.

So that all of this can happen I want to thank and acknowledge the work and wisdom of our Parish Office Staff, our Parish Liturgy Planning Team, our Liturgical Art and Environment Group, all of our Liturgical ministers with their various acts of service, our Parish Choir, musicians and singers and you, the people who are the Church at this time here in our place and Parish community. I would love to have even more of you offering yourself as Christ did to help us in these groups and ministries, something you might consider doing if you aren't already, so that the real meaning of Easter is deepened within you. Simply contact the Parish Office, Malia or myself if you hear the call to help your Church family with our celebrations and liturgical life in any way.

Having said this the scene is set, the story of Christ and of us in Him is ready to be heard again, and better still ready to be walked and lived by us, so that in seven days time on Easter Sunday we can be more fully alive in Christ and become renewed in God's grace which is eternal.

Archbishop Mark has a message for you: In any Catholic church you'll see the Stations of the Cross or, as they're sometimes called, the Way of the Cross. There are fourteen images which tell the story of Jesus from his condemnation to his death and resurrection. They began to appear in the medieval period when pilgrimage to the Holy Land became more popular. People who had been to the Holy Land wanted to remember their pilgrimage, and those who hadn't been or could never go wanted to make their own virtual pilgrimage. There was a growing sense that this journey of Jesus had a cosmic significance. It was the journey of every human being, certainly of every disciple. The Stations spoke the truth of our own life. That's still true today. If you follow the Stations, you'll see that they tell the story, for instance, of the people of Ukraine. The Way of the Cross is the universal story of human suffering. But it's also the promise of universal redemption. It's the story of an unkillable hope.

Jesus' life-giving death is the focus in the proclamation of the Passion and the Adoration of the Holy Cross. The cross is an instrument of life. To remain Covid Safe, we will not process forward individually to Venerate the Cross. This year we will have a Public Veneration of the Cross. The Cross will be taken to each section of the congregation and we will venerate together by kneeling before the Cross.

Good Friday Collection: The annual collection for the Support of the Church in the Holy Land takes place on Good Friday, as a Retiring Collection. This collection promotes the missionary work of the Church in the Holy Land by providing welfare assistance to local Christians in areas such as health, education, employment and housing. The collection is also used to maintain over 70 churches and shrines associated with the life of Jesus. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. Please remember the Christians of the Holy Land again on this Good Friday. Please also pray that peace and harmony will become a reality in the birthplace of Jesus, the 'Prince of Peace'.

King, whose reign shall never cease,
Prince of everlasting peace.

Refrain: Angels, saints and nations, sing:
"Praised be Jesus Christ our King;
Lord of life, earth, sky and sea,

2. King whose name creation thrills,
rule our minds, our hearts, our wills,
till in peace each nation rings
with your praises, King of kings.

3. King most holy, King of truth,
guide the wayward, guide the youth;
Christ our King of glory bright,
be to us eternal light.

4. Shepherd King, from mountain steep,
homeward bring the wand'ring sheep;
Shelter in one royal fold
states and nations, new and old.

to lay down one's life for a friend.

Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ and the triumph of God's great love.

COMMUNION:

"UNLESS A GRAIN OF WHEAT"

Refrain: Unless a grain of wheat shall fall
upon the ground and die,
it remains but a single grain with no life.
