The Pastor's Pen....

SPIRITUALITY – A PLACE WHERE ALL BELIEVERS CAN COME TOGETHER

Pentecost, our great Solemnity of this weekend, is about the good news of salvation being spread and understood by all and our part in this never ending mission through the action of the Holy Spirit. Fr Ron Rolheiser OMI has wise words to share with us about the spirituality that unites us as one by our shared search and language of faith, beyond all that seeks and too often succeeds in dividing us. Take a little time to read and think about what Fr Ron has to say below as we strive to grow and live in the Spirit of God.....

Where can all of us believers come together beyond the divisions created by history, dogma, denomination, and religion? Where is there a place all people of sincere heart can find common ground and worship together?

That place is found in the ecumenical and inter-religious pursuit of spirituality, and we all need to try to create such a place together.

What is spirituality as an academic discipline within our theology schools and seminaries? It has actually been around a long time, though under different names. In Roman Catholic circles, formerly it was handled piecemeal as moral theology, liturgy, ascetical theology, and as mystical and devotional literature. In Protestant and Evangelical circles (where, until recently, mystical and devotional literature were distrusted) there were courses on discipleship, worship, and Christian ethics.

So what is spirituality as an area of study? At the risk of a vast over-simplification, let me propose an analogy as a way of understanding how spirituality relates to theology and dogma. Spirituality is related to theology and dogma akin to how an actual game of sports is related to the rule book of that sport.

For example, for any game there is a rulebook, one initially codified and then periodically amended through the many years the game has been played. To play the game today one has to stay within those rules. There is no game outside those rules. However, while these rules critically dictate the lines within which the game has to be played, They are not the game itself. They merely dictate how it is to be played and ensure that it is played in a fair manner.

In essence, that is the critical role of theology and dogma. They are the rule book for how we need to discern faith and religious practice as we live out our discipleship, if we are legitimately to call ourselves Christian. But, while they make the rules, spirituality is the actual game; it's how in actual practice we live out our faith and discipleship.

Thus, spirituality takes in morality and ethics, worship, ascetical theology, mystical theology, devotional theology, and everything else we do in living out our discipleship. Theology makes the rules, while spirituality tries to instil the motivation, the fire, the hope, and the practical guidance for the game itself, which is our lived discipleship.

I offer this little reasoning for spirituality as an academic discipline in view of affirming that spirituality is that place where believers can come together in a common heart beyond the long-standing divisions created by history, dogma, ecclesiology, and different notions of faith. Spirituality is a place where we can meet in a communion of faith that takes us (at least in that place and moment) beyond our different histories, our different denominations, our different religions, and our different notions of faith.

I know this is true because I have seen and am seeing it first-hand. Oblate School of Theology, where I teach, has an Institute of Contemporary Spirituality in which I see Roman Catholics, Protestants, and Evangelicals of every persuasion studying together, searching together, and praying together in a way that denominational differences simply don't enter into. Everyone, irrespective of denomination, is searching for the same things: What does it mean to be a disciple of Jesus today? How does one genuinely pray? How do we sustain faith in a secular world that so easily swallows us whole? How can we pass our faith on to our own children? How can we be both prophet and healer in our bitterly divided world? What is a faith-based response to injustice? How does someone age and die well? What insights and grace can we draw from the deep wells of Christian mysticism and holy stories to help guide our lives?

Everyone has the same questions, and everyone is searching at the same places. Denominationalism recedes when spirituality takes over.

Moreover, this doesn't just pertain to being together beyond the differences of denominations among Christians; the same holds true vis-a-vis our separation from other world religions. The questions we are grappling with as Christians are the same questions that Hindu, Buddhist, Islamic, Taoist, and other believers are grappling with, and they are looking to us for help even as we are looking to them for help. In spirituality, Christians learn from Sufi Islamic mystics, even as Islamic believers delve into Mariology and Christian mysticism. Buddhist, Hindu, and Taoist believers pick up the Spiritual Exercise of Saint Ignatius, even as Christians learn from various Buddhist and Hindu methods of meditation.

Jesus assured us that in God's house there are many rooms. Spirituality is one of those rooms. Spirituality is the room where all who are caught-up in a common need, common search, and common hope, can bracket for a time their denominational and religious differences and search together.

Don't get me wrong, this doesn't take away with our differences; but it gives us a place where we can be in a community of life and faith with each other, beyond those differences.

St Vincent de Paul Winter Appeal 11th & 12th June 2022

This year your local conference has been busy assisting people who were affected by the 2022 floods. In fact conference members have made 59 contacts, most involving visits, to flooded residents. With the benefit of the SVDP Disaster Relief appeal, we have been able to help many families and individuals to make the start towards recovery from the devastation they endured. We are also grateful to generous parishioners who have provided funds for further support for the flood affected.

As you would be aware, the needs of other vulnerable people within the community have been ongoing during this time, and your local Vincentians have continued to visit and support them. We can only do this through the generous and ongoing donations of our parish community. We can assure you that your support is much appreciated by the conference. It helps us come to the aid of those who struggle to meet their bills, including rental, medical and utilities, while still continuing to feed their families. This becomes particularly difficult during the winter months when power bills rise and warm clothes are needed.

If you are able to assist us in this ongoing outreach, please support our St Vincent de Paul (Christ the King and St Joseph's Conference) Winter Appeal.

You can do this by transferring money online to our account:- BSB: 064786 ; Account Number: 100026057; Account name: SVDP Christ the King and St Joseph's Corinda Graceville Conference, or by making a deposit in any branch of the Commonwealth Bank to: Account identification No. 4000 0032 5284 Agent No. 8064 Name of account: Archdiocesan Development Fund.

You may also use one of the SVDP envelopes available in the church, and placing this (or a plain envelope marked SVDP) with the parish collection or at the parish office. Donations can also be posted to Post Office Box 97, Corinda (do not enclose cash in the post). If you would like a receipt, please use your name as the reference.

Finally, please pray for your local Vincentians, and consider whether you are being called to join them in their outreach. For further information on membership, email ctksj4075@svdpqld.org.au.

Planned Giving envelopes are now available in the pigeon holes at the front entrances at both churches. If you give via envelope please collect your Planned Giving envelope packs after Mass this weekend.

If you are not already a Planned Giver and wish to commence regular support for your parish, either via envelope, Direct Debit, or Credit Card, please contact the Parish Office for further details. Your support of the parish is greatly appreciated.

SEQUENCE OF PENTECOST: "COME, O HOLY SPIRIT" (Please remain seated for the singing of the Sequence)

1. Come, O Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine! Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
Come, O Father of the poor! Come, O Source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine! Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
2. You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below! Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
In our labour, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe. Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
3. O most blessed Light divine, May that Light within us shine,
And our inmost being fill! Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
In your absence, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill. Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
4. Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away; Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
Bend the stubborn heart and will; Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray. Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
5. On the faithful who adore and confess you ever more,
In your sev'nfold gift descend; Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Come, O Holy Spirit, come!
